1. The total number of technicians, employed until approximately the end of October 1946 in the Russo-German Research Institute in the GEMA Building at Köpenick, who have been forcibly removed (together with their families) is quoted as being 172. They include:

- a. Buschbeck - Department 7, House 10. Formerly at Telefunken.
- b. Eizenberger - Department 7, House 10. Formerly at Telefunken.
- c. Wilhelm - Department 7, House 10. Formerly at Telefunken.
- d. Zilecki - Department 7, House 10. Formerly at Telefunken.
- e. Sicher - Department 7, House 10. Former GEMA employee.
- f. Mullert - In charge of the gyroscope section of the "Berliner Institut".
- g. Wilde - Employed by the M.S.I.
- h. Wilke - Employed by the M.S.P.
- i. Gudakowski.

2. Auler was arrested at the entrance to the GEMA buildings and was not permitted to arrange for his family and belongings to be moved with him.

4. Dipl. Ing. Fröhling (not yet reported as having been deported) was at first employed in GEMA Section 15, where he was responsible for the development of the Henschel 293 and 294 projects. He was dissatisfied with this work and joined Department 7 in House 10 and became responsible for the development of the "Rheinland Gerät" on ultra short-wave, decimeter, and centimeter frequencies with the object of improving control and projectile location.
